TREASURER OF STATE NAMES RETIREMENT BOARD MEMBER

On Jan. 8, 2010, Treasurer of State Kevin L. Boyce announced his appointment to the State Teachers Retirement Board. Joining the board is Dr. Daniel J. Martin, who is currently the president of Mount Vernon Nazarene University. Before assuming this position, he served as the vice president for University Advancement at Point Loma Nazarene University in San Diego, as well as in various positions with MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, Kan. He holds two doctorate degrees in higher education from the University of Pennsylvania and The University of Kansas, as well as a law degree and a master's in business administration from The University of Kansas. Martin's four-year term on the board will run through Jan. 7, 2014.

Amended Substitute Senate Bill 133 passed in June 2004 included a provision that enabled the state treasurer to appoint an investment expert to the State Teachers Retirement Board. The 11 members of the board are compensated for expenses only.

STRS Ohio serves as the public pension fund for Ohio's public educators, providing retirement, survivor and disability benefits, as well as optional health care coverage for retirees.
